

Oxford & District Bowls League Sponsored by Yarnton Nurseries

Week 2 – 20/05/2010

Banbury Central A with a hundred percent record top the early season table of the Oxford & District Bowls League sponsored by Yarnton Nurseries. Under their new captain Lee Young, Central chalked up a 6-0 win over Bicester. Closest rivals Headington A also picked up full points against City & County A to keep the pressure on and, on a night of whitewashes in the top flight, Carterton in their first game of the campaign took the maximum at South Oxford A.

Witney Mills kept up their good start in Division 2 with a home win against fellow promotees Kidlington. Reports tell us that a great last bowl by Thame's Les Westcott secured a win in a very tight game with West Witney and Shiplake comfortably beat Cotswold with Barry Lambourne's four leading the way.

Division 3 saw the biggest score of the night with Roy Brain of Blackbird Leys notching up a 41-12 against Bloxham. Leys head the table by one point from newly promoted Headington B who won away at Banbury Central B. Elsewhere Woodstock and Charlbury took the points in close games against Rover and Witney Town.

West Oxford top Division 4 having taken two wins from three. They beat OUP. Wins for Chadlington, Florence Park and Hanborough make up the rest of the results.
